- Guidelines for Articles / Research Papers

- 1. Author Guidelines

- Typescript preparation

1. The original typescript should be submitted electronically in A4 size format, with a word count of 4000-6000 (excluding figures), following the other submission.
2. Typescript should have double line spacing at the time of submission.
3. A final paper which would exceed 6000 words or occupy more than 15 pages of the Journal may be returned for abridgement.
4. The text of the paper should include title, abstract, text, references and notes, tables, figure captions, figures, but not the names of authors, their biographical notes nor any acknowledgements. Please make sure that author's names are not included in the document/file properties.
5. For email submissions, you will need a separate file containing the title of the paper, plus the names, affiliation and complete addresses, e-mail and fax number of authors, and an abstract, keywords, brief biographical notes about authors and any acknowledgements; and Resume of the contributor.
6. All papers must be written in English. If English is not your first language, please ask an English-speaking colleague to proofread your paper.

- International context

1. It should not be assumed that the reader is familiar with specific national institutions or corporations. Authors are encouraged to approach their chosen topic with an international perspective.
2. Countries and groupings of countries should be referred to by their full title (for example, 'Asia', 'Europe' and 'America' are all ambiguous).
3. Special attention should be paid to identifying units of currency by nationality.
4. Acronyms should be translated in full into English.

- Title, abstract, keywords, addresses, biographical notes

Please assist us by following these guidelines:

1. Title : as short as possible
2. Authors Details and Address : Author Name and Position, department, name of institution, full postal address and email address for each author
3. Abstract: approximately 100 words, maximum 150
4. Keywords: approximately 10-15 words or phrases. Keywords are important for online searching.
5. Biographical notes : approximately 100 words per author, maximum 150.
6. Affiliation : If any.

- References and notes

1. IJMPR journal uses the Harvard (name and date) short reference system for citations in the text with a detailed alphabetical list at the end of the paper. For example 'Large (2010) suggests ...' or 'Liang and Zeger (1986) found that ...' or 'Both Kremen et al. (2008) and Weickert et al. (2000) extracted...'
2. Footnotes should be avoided, but any short, succinct notes making a specific point, may be placed in number order following the alphabetical list of references.
3. References should be made only to works that are published, accepted for publication (not merely 'submitted'), or available through libraries or institutions. Any other source should be qualified by a note regarding availability.

4. Full reference should include all author's names and initials, date of publication, title of paper, title of publication (italics), volume and issue number (of a journal), publisher and form (books, conference proceedings), page numbers.

- Figures

All illustrations, whether diagrams or photographs, are referred to as Figures. Figures may be black and white or colour, and numbered sequentially. Please prepare all figures, especially line diagrams, to the highest possible standards. Digital art may be created/scanned and submitted as either TIFF, JPG or PPT files.

- Translated works

1. Difficulty often arises in translating acronyms, so it is best to spell out an acronym in English (for example, AU – Both ears).
2. Similarly, labels and suffixes need careful attention where the letters refer to words which have been translated.

2. Copyright and Author Rights and Responsibilities

IJMPR is wholly committed to the highest standards of medical and pharma sciences. In all that we do, we work to ensure the widest possible access to the articles that we publish, to enhance the reputation of the author, the journal, its editor and editorial board, and the value that we add altogether.

In order that we can do this properly and professionally, we ask authors to sign our Author Agreement assigning (or transferring) copyright to Editor and IJMPR. The transfer of copyright is standard practice in journal publishing. This enables us, to negotiate subsidiary licenses to database aggregators and document supply companies, and allows permissions to reproduce articles in books, course packs, electronic reserve or for library loan to be handled efficiently and with sensitivity to changing library and reader needs. This relieves authors of a time-consuming and costly administrative burden. It also enable us to defend and enforce author's rights against plagiarism, copyright infringement, unauthorized use and, most important for author's professional reputation, breach of author's moral rights.

4. Author Agreement

Each author must sign a copyright agreement (Author Agreement) form and send the signed forms, in electronic format, to the Editor, together with your paper. Signatures of all authors may appear on one form or be sent on individual forms.

So that we can ensure both the widest dissemination and protection of material published in IJMPR, we ask authors to assign copyright in their papers, including abstracts, to the Editor-IJMPR. This enables us to ensure copyright protection against infringement, and to disseminate your article, and our journals, as widely as possible.

1. In consideration of the undertaking set out in paragraph 2, and upon acceptance by Editor-IJMPR for publication in the Journal, the Author hereby assigns and transfers grants to editor and IJMPR, the copyright in and to the Article entitled :

to be published in IJMPR.

This assignment provides IJMPR the sole right and responsibility to publish the Article, including the right to sub-license publishing or distribution rights as may be appropriate, the Article in both printed and electronic form; the Article may be published in printed, online, CD-ROM, microfiche or in other media formats.

2. In consideration of this assignment, IJMPR hereby undertakes to prepare and publish the Article named in paragraph 1 in the Journal, subject only to its right to refuse publication if there is a breach of the Author's warranty in paragraph 4 or there are other reasonable grounds; in such case IJMPR reverts and assigns to the Author any and all copyright and other rights in the Article otherwise assigned to it under this Agreement.
3. The Editor of the Journal is empowered to make such editorial changes as may be necessary to make the Article suitable for publication. Every effort will be made to consult the Author if substantive changes are required.
4. The Author warrants that the Article is the Author's original work, has not been published before, and is not currently under consideration for publication elsewhere; and that the Article contains no libelous or unlawful statements and that it in no way infringes the rights of others, and that the Author, as the owner of the copyright, is entitled to make this assignment.
